SUMMARY

Strategy & Operations Manager serving as internal strategy consultant across product, GTM, and finance for a Series D B2B SaaS with 3,000+ customers. Structures ambiguous problems into revenue, pricing, and GTM models that drive executive decisions, using agentic AI like Claude Code to accelerate analysis and automate workflows. UCLA Anderson MBA.

EXPERIENCE

PRODUCTBOARD - B2B product management SaaS (Series D)

San Francisco, CA

Strategy & Operations Manager

September 2025 – Present

- Converted 60 AI use cases into prioritized product roadmap, using customer interviews and MaxDiff survey to identify high-value features and align engineering and GTM investment behind strongest commercial opportunities
- Diagnosed impact of shifting enterprise renewals onto AEs by isolating effects on net-new conversion, win rates, and cycle time, surfacing declining funnel productivity that drove leadership to restructure renewal operations and protect retention
- Built trial-analytics tool in Claude Code on SQL and Snowflake to surface customer product usage and generate tailored talk tracks, adopted team-wide by AEs to lift product engagement and trial conversion
- Architected company-wide revenue dashboard across self-serve and sales-led motions, segmenting new business, expansion, and churn KPIs, powering forecasting, monthly business reviews, QBRs, and board reporting
- Operationalized seat-overage revenue capture into repeatable upsell playbook, defining screening criteria across product usage, account health, and renewal timing, routing $1M+ in collectible expansion ARR to AEs
